TOWER ROOM

Welcome. This room was originally designed as a banquet and meeting room for the Hotel Del Monte. The elegant lines, high ceiling, hearth, and fresco by Ferdinand Burghdorff create a distinct sense of place, which Keeler's Hotel Weekly, in its May 1926 tribute to the Del Monte, described as "baronial...a place unique and apart from the rest of the rooms" of the hotel.

The Tower Room has been furnished for all to use and enjoy. Please help us preserve the beauty of this room by observing the following rules:

- Guest must wear appropriate attire at all times (shirts, shoes, etc).
- Smoking is not allowed.
- Fireplace use requires written approval of the Deputy Superintendent.
- Furniture and other items may not be moved about in the room or removed without prior approval of the Deputy Superintendent.

With your help and cooperation, guests will enjoy the beauty and elegance of this room for years to come.

An artist's view of the reconstructed Hotel Del Monte captures its distinctive architecture and scenic grounds.
